MANCHESTER BUREAU, TIMES-DISPATCH.
No. 102 Hull Street.
There was no meeting of the veterans last night for the purpose of recognizing the Joseph E. Johnston Camp, because of the very inclement weather.

'Squire Jordan, the prime mover in the matter, said last night that the meeting would be held on Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock, at No. 102 Hull Street, and he hoped there would be a large turnout of the old vets.

The camp has been invited to attend the reunion at the Crater, near Petersburg, on the 31st instant, and he wishes particularly that Messrs. George C. Anderson, T. H. Stuart and R. A. Baugh would be present.

QUIET WEDDING.
A quiet home wedding will be solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seva Thayer Brown, No. 823 Bainbridge Street, on Thursday morning, October 22d, at 8 o'clock, when their daughter, Annie Dunn, will be united in marriage to Mr. Harry Melvin Lawder. No cards have been issued.

ELKS' MEETING.
The Manchester Lodge will meet in regular session to-morrow night, when business of importance will be transacted. Exalted Ruler Eugene Lipscomb will not be present, as he leaves for Port Norfolk, where he will wed Miss Crooks, formerly of Manchester.

The lodge will send the exalted ruler the usual greeting.

LETTER TO MISS GREGORY.
Miss Imogen Gregory received yesterday the following announcement of her appointment to the Grand Camp, Confederate Veterans, for Newport News, Va., from General James Macgill, Grand Commander, and Captain Thomas Elliott, Adjutant-General:

Headquarters Grand Camp, Confederate Veterans, Department of Virginia, Richmond, Va., Oct. 15th, 1908.
Dear Miss—It gives me pleasure to announce that General James Macgill, Grand Commander of the Grand Camp, Confederate Veterans, Department of Virginia, has appointed you sponsor for the Third Congressional District of this State at the sixteenth annual meeting of the Grand Camp, to be held at Newport News, Va., on the 28th, 29th and 30th of this month.

We hope it will be your pleasure to accept. Very respectfully,
THOMAS ELLETT, Adj. Genl.
Miss Gregory will reply to Captain Ellett in a few days, acknowledging General Macgill's appointment, and state her cordial acceptance.

BAD BOYS SENTENCED.
The three young men, Charles Howard and Sam Howard, white, and Charles Baptist, colored, who were arrested by Policemen Watts, of the county, were sentenced to the Chesterfield Jail for six days by 'Squire Chatham. The boys worked a shrewd game. The white boys would go to the front door of a residence and beg for food, while the negro "went through" the rear of the house.

It believed they have robbed a number of houses in this way.

GETTING ALONG NICELY.
The dozen injured persons from the street car wreck on Seventh Street, Richmond, are reported as doing nicely. Both Mr. A. A. Shannon and J. B. Egerton, who are at the Virginia Hospital, are expected to be ready to leave in a day or two, and the others are suffering very little from their injuries.

TWO COMING MARRIAGES.
Mr. and Mrs. George Paul have sent out invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Birdie Weddell Cox, and Mr. James Augustus Davidson, which is to take place at No. 1305 Bainbridge Street on October 27th, at 8 o'clock.

Miss Cox is a popular young lady of Manchester and well known in Richmond. Mr. Davidson is a merchant in Farmville. Mr. Arthur Dunnivant and Miss Rosa V. Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jenkins, will be married at the bride's home to-day.

BAZAAR TO OPEN.
Governor Montague will open the Masonic bazaar at the Temple to-morrow night. He will be introduced by Judge Ingram. Then the festivities will begin, and a good time is guaranteed to all.

For Tuesday night an excellent programme has been suggested by Mr. W. J. Morrisett, as follows:
Soprano solo—Mrs. C. T. Jones.
Baritone solo—James E. Dunbar.
Solo, comic—J. A. Williamson.
Euphonium solo—S. S. Perkins.
Selection—Professor Criffin.
Masonic male quartette—Messrs. E. Phillips, B. W. Nunnally, W. J. Lewis and W. J. Morrisett.

There will be a change of programme every night. A large attendance is assured every night.

COURT NOTES.
Mayor Maurice fined E. L. Goodwin, Joseph Conway and Charles Emery $5 each yesterday for contempt.
Buck Cheatham, colored, was sent to jail for thirty days by 'Squire Cheatham for drunkenness.

PERSONAL AND NOTES.
Special music has been arranged for the morning service at Clifton Street Church to-day.

Rev. London Grove, of Powhatan, will preach at Oak Grove Baptist Church to-day.

Rev. George H. Wiley will preach at Fifth Street Church this evening.

The Titusson, of Councilman W. D. Ferguson is better.

Miss Carrie Johnson and the Misses Thacker, of Petersburg, are at the home of Miss Rosalie Royal, of Manchester, for the horse show.

RAILWAY SHOPS CLOSED.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., Oct. 17.—The Southern Railway shops at Salisbury were closed to-day at 11:30, and the hundreds of employees are taking a holiday. The reason given out for the closing is that the appropriation set apart for the shops at this place has been exhausted. The demands made for repair work, besides the regular maintenance, have been so heavy that nearly all the departments have been running night and day, which accounts for the expenses running ahead of the appropriation.

The shops will resume operation Monday morning.

FUNERAL OF MRS. MOLLOY.
The funeral of Mrs. J. J. Molloy will be from St. Patrick's Church at 10 o'clock to-day morning.

NOTED OPTOMIST OF NEW YORK CITY VISITS RICHMOND

Charles Lincoln Smith to be Here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Expert Who Has Created Widespread Interest and Gained National Reputation by His Exclusive Method, His Own Discovery—Opportunity Which will be Appreciated by Many People of This City.

The announcement is made of the visit to this city of one of the most famous experts in defective eyesight. Charles Lincoln Smith, of New York City, who came here to work on special cases, has decided to remain here for three days, and will give the people of this city the benefit of his remarkable discovery.

With an experience of twenty-five years in the principal cities of the country, his success phenomenal, he comes to Richmond with letters from the best-known business and professional men of the country. He has the handsomest suite of rooms in Murphy's Annex. On the dates named he will give consultation free to those who call at his rooms between the hours of 10 A. M. and 4 P. M.

If you have blurring, dizziness, neuralgia, headache, spots before the eyes, inflammation, granulation, winging, trembling spells, cataract, burning and smarting of the eyes, various nervous and brain affections, entailing not only positive injury to the sight, but untold misery, call immediately.

Charles Lincoln Smith, the famous New York optician, is at Murphy's Hotel Annex, private rooms Nos. 150, 152 and 154. Consultation absolutely free. Eighth-Street entrance. Take elevator.

Office hours—10 A. M. to 4 P. M. Statements from some prominent people:

GENERAL M. W. RANSOM.
United States Senator from Weldon, North Carolina.

General Ransom, after being fitted with glasses by Charles Lincoln Smith, says: "I now see so naturally that I do not realize that I have on glasses. I now see as I did before I ever used glasses. Charles Lincoln Smith's method is marvelous to me, and his extraordinary skill and thorough knowledge of his profession."

"He is a pastmaster in his art, and I cannot speak too highly of the results accomplished in my case."

CAPTAIN R. A. DOBIE.
Superintendent of Public Schools of the City of Norfolk.
